

FIVE MEETINGS TO HAVE IN MINISTRY

Meeting with your Pastor

Make sure you are still heading in the direction that your lead pastor wants you to go. A simple question like, “Pastor what’s your idea of a WIN for the next 3 months in my Ministry area?”, can give you insight and a clearer direction on where to go in your Ministry area.

Parents Meeting

Keeping parents informed and engaged is a necessary part of your Ministry. Three things that can happen in this meeting are to:

- 1. INFORM them of upcoming events
- 2. EQUIP them with resources and tools to help them.
- 3. LISTEN to them for any feedback and good ideas.

Volunteers Meeting

Make sure your teams are all on the same page. Make sure they know when they are on the schedule in the next 3-6 months. Make sure they know the expectations and the job description for their role. This is a great time to INSPIRE them, APPRECIATE them, and MOTIVATE them to UP their commitment to finish the year STRONG!

Planning Meeting

This is with your core team. Just a few leaders who will help you plan out what and how you want your Ministry to be intentional and meaningful. Maybe go off-site for a day, get out of the office, and have a day where you just DREAM, PLAN, and PRAY!

Review Meeting

The Fall is a great time to look back over the events of summer and ask, “What did we do RIGHT and What do we need to STOP doing?”

Invite some leaders that you trust and are invested in your Ministry area. LISTEN to them, Don’t defend everything, just listen, take notes, and be honest about the feedback you receive.
